

Purpose Our public works professionals are in the field every day dealing with a multitude of tasks. This award is to recognize the hard working individuals that have done something extraordinary or heroic. They have made a difference by responding to a citizen in distress, a major event or lifting up their team in a way not typically expected. OPWA wants to recognize the great commitment and dedication these front line workers have shown to their communities, peers and employers.

Eligibility

1. Anyone actively involved in the public works profession is eligible, OPWA membership is not required.
2. One nomination from any public works agency, which can include a team or an individual.
3. Demonstrated the willingness to make a difference
